

POST M.SC. / M.TECH TRAINING / INTERNSHIP

Subjects available

- Biotechnology/Molecular Biology
- Entomology
- Extension
- Genetics & Plant Breeding
- Horticulture / Spices, Plantation, Medicinal and Aromatic Plants
- Plant Pathology
- Plant Physiology
- Post-Harvest Engineering/Food Science/Food Technology
- Soil Science
- Farm Machinery

Eligibility

M.S.c. / M.Tech holders

Fee structure

Rs. 20,000/- (upt o 3 months)

Rs. 30,000/- (up to 6 months)

How to Apply

The students may informally discuss with the scientists of their subject about the availability and work plan (<https://cashew.icar.gov.in/scientist/>).

Eligible candidates may send their application along with the following documents, clearly indicating the subject and period of the training/dissertation, by e-mail to director.dcr@icar.gov.in or dircajures@gmail.com

1. Biodata (with Contact phone No. and E.mail ID)
2. Self-attested copies of M.Sc./M.Tech. certificate & marksheet

General Terms & Conditions

- Selection is based on vacancy available with individual scientists.
- The candidates who join for training programme should abide by the rules and regulations of the institute.
- The findings of the study would be the property of the institute and prior permission of the Director, ICAR-Directorate of Cashew Research, Puttur is required before publication of the work in any form.
- The candidate must complete the work to the satisfaction of the scientist mentor and submit a report to the Directorate in hard copy as well as softcopy.

- The candidates should make their own arrangements for boarding and lodging while undergoing the training programme, if necessary.
- The fee once paid will not be refunded under any circumstances.
- The decision of Head of the Institute would be final and binding in all aspects.

Ref: Education Division, ICAR: F.No. 2-8/2012-HRD dated 25th April, 2014

<https://icar.org.in/files/RevisedGuidelinesforthestudentstoconductresearch25042014.pdf>