

ICAR-DCR Puttur Participated in National Technology Day at NITTE University Mangalore

ICAR-Directorate of Cashew Research Puttur recently participated in the National Technology Day celebration at NITTE University Mangalore on 11.05.2024.

Director J. Dinakara Adiga ICAR, DCR, Puttur was the chief guest of the programme, he inaugurated and highlighted about the importance of innovation and technology and the immense opportunities available in the cashew sector for technology and entrepreneurship. He also briefed about the ICAR-DCR-developed technologies available for commercialization.

Dr. D Balasubramanian, Principal investigator of the Agri-Business Incubation Centre addressed the gathering in a panel discussion and explained in detail the Agribusiness activities of DCR and the technological interventions in the cashew sector.

As a part of the exposition of the technologies the ABI exhibited the ICAR-DCR developed technologies. Dr Veena G L Scientist (Fruit Science) and Dr Jyoti Nishad, Scientist (Food tech) explained the value addition in cashew apple and cashew nut and the technologies exhibited. In this programme, various FPO's, Entrepreneurs, Agro-industrialists, Professors, and Research scholars were taken part. More than 100 participants from different sectors have participated in this programme.

