

Hindi Fortnight Celebration at ICAR-DCR

“Hindi Pakhwada” (Hindi fortnight) was meaningfully celebrated under the auspices of Town Official Language Implementation Committee at ICAR-DCR, Puttur from 14-28 September. Employees of central government offices of Puttur city, high school teachers & students, parents participated and celebrated in this program.

During the grand closing ceremony function High school students and teachers who won Puttur city level Hindi essay competition were felicitated. Several staff members of DCR Puttur won awards in Hindi song, Sulekhan writing and Quiz competitions were encouraged with specula prizes.

Dr. KarunaLaxmi, Hindi lecturer, Govt Degree College, Bettampady was the Chief guest on the occasion. Staff members of ICAR-DCR who have done their official work in Hindi were encouraged with cash awards. Dr. Dinakar Adiga, Director, DCR Puttur presided over the function. He appreciated the participation of large number of students, teachers and employees in the Hindi activities conducted by DCR and said that the directorate would strive to encourage implementation of Raj Bhasha in future too.

Dr Rajesh, Head CPCRI Vittal and Sri Harish, Sr. Superintendent of Post Offices, Puttur were present on the occasion as guests of honor.

